

Develop your cross-cultural skills

GENERAL AIM OF THE TRAINING

How to better work together, to better cooperate, to better communicate, to better listen to and understand each other. To develop management and communication skills, in a cross-cultural context.

PROGRAMME

- General introduction to intercultural skills.
- To know oneself better and to become aware of one's own culture.
- To identify stereotypes.
- To know the 8 indicators of cultural orientation.
- To work on one's own cross-cultural communication.
- To manage cross-cultural conflict sources and the tools to overcome them
- To manage an intercultural team

TARGET AUDIENCE

Anyone who evolves in a multicultural professional environment.

PREREQUISITE

No degree or certificate required.
B1 level in French or English required.

MODALITIES

Intra and inter-company training

Organisation: individual.

Modality: e-learning.

Language: French or English

Duration: 7 hours

Dates: any time.

Fees: € 350 VAT not incl. per person

Accessibility: e-learning training, accessible to people with disabilities.

Access time after registration: 1 month.

Educational means: Theoretical and practical exercises, with video and audio material, texts, games.

Assessment: tests and quizzes throughout the training